Dear Parent/Guardian

"Blood Brothers" New Theatre, Oxford
Wednesday 28th November 2018

Next academic year, your child will be studying Blood Brothers as part of their Literature GCSE course. I have been fortunate in obtaining 90 tickets for the National Theatre production of "Blood Brothers" at the New Theatre, Oxford on Wednesday 28th November 2018, a matinee performance. We have offered the tickets to Year 10 first and the remainder 30 tickets are now being offered to Year 9. The tickets are £25.00 which covers the cost of the ticket, insurance and transport by coach to and from Oxford. This production offers an excellent opportunity for our KS4 pupils to see a live performance of a GCSE exam text they are studying.

We will leave BGN School at 1pm and will aim to be back at approximately 6pm (traffic dependent). There will be a stop at Bicester Rugby Club Bus Stop for our Bicester Students on the way home. All students will need to bring a packed lunch and drink (no nut products or glass bottles) and little spending money.

Payments for this trip can only be made on Parent Pay on payment item: 'Blood Brothers 18'. If you do not have access to the internet, cash payments can be made via a PayPoint facility together with a Bar Code Letter provided by us upon request. If required, please collect this letter and a consent form as soon as possible to ensure your place is secured.

Tickets are limited and are being offered on a first come first served basis. In order to secure our booking with the Theatre, we need to receive payment from you before FRIDAY 22ND JUNE 2018. Payments will not be possible after this date. Please ensure you complete all the required fields when making your payment as consent information is made at the point of payment and not on a separate consent form, this does not apply to Paypoint facilities.

Yours sincerely

Mrs Cathrine Sharpley
